

PUBLIC WARNING – QZ ASSET MANAGEMENT

It has been brought to the attention of the Financial Services Regulatory Authority (FSRA) that a company called QZ Asset Management (Facebook: QZ Asset Management Eswatini Swaziland) has been promoting its services as an Asset Manager without acquiring authorization from the FSRA.

The members of the public are advised that in terms of Section 35(1) of the Financial Services Regulatory Authority Act, 2010,

“A person shall not provide, purport to provide or hold himself or herself out as being able or authorised to provide financial services in Swaziland unless that person is an authorised financial services provider under this Part, or as otherwise permitted in this Act.”

In the exercise of its statutory mandate under section 4 (f), 4 (c) and 5 (f) of the Financial Services Regulatory Authority Act, 2010, the FSRA, therefore, warns the public against QZ Asset Management and further reminds consumers and investors that they should confirm beforehand, the legitimacy of any financial services provider with whom they wish to purchase financial products or services by either requesting proof if the person or entity in question is licensed by the FSRA or Central Bank of Eswatini (CBE) and whether or not such person or entity is authorised to render financial services in Eswatini.
